Dear Dwight,

Thank you so much for your thoughtful letter of congratulations and the kind invitation to speak to the Economic Club of New York.

As you can imagine, my schedule is rather tight for the next few months. Thus, I will have to decline the 3 May offer, but would certainly entertain a "fall season" engagement. My staff will be in touch shortly to firm up a date.

Again, many thanks and all the best.

Yours,

STANSFIELD TURNER

March 21, 1977

The Honorable Stansfield Turner
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C. 205-05

Dear Admiral Turner:

First let me congratulate you on your appointment by the President to be the Director of the Central Intelligence Agency. It needs a strong hand and you bring to the position a record that inspires confidence. My best wishes for every success.

I am writing to extend an invitation to you to be the guest of The Economic Club of New York and to address our audience. Let me add here that we had Director William E. Colby as our guest in 1974, and he was well received by our audience.

Our members are executives on the top levels of business, industry and finance. Many of their companies operate not only in this country but throughout the world.

The Club, which was founded in 1907, is non-political and non-partisan. Our dinner meetings are black tie occasions held in the Grand Ballroom of the New York Hilton. Our audience numbers approximately 1000. Two speakers appear on each program, chosen from different fields and speaking on different subjects. The program includes a question period with questions asked by a panel at the Head Table. The press is represented.

In order to put this invitation into concrete terms, I should like to suggest the date of Tuesday May 3, 1977. We have four dinner meetings a year, and the next will be scheduled some time in the fall season. I am enclosing some materials on the background of the Club. Our Board of Directors joins me in hoping that you will find it possible to be with us.

Best regards.

Cordially,

BACKGROUND NOTES ON THE ECONOMIC CLUB OF NEW YORK

The Economic Club of New York, which was founded in 1907, is a membership organization with members drawn from the top executive levels of business, industry and finance. The companies they represent are the leading companies in their respective fields. The Club is non-political, non-partisan, non-profit.

Dinner meetings are held four times each year between September and May. These are black tie occasions. The audience usually numbers around 1000. A question period is included in each program. The press is represented.

Speakers are drawn not only from the United States but from other countries as well. Over the years they have included heads of government, cabinet ministers, legislators, economists, bankers, corporation executives, labor leaders, university presidents, governors, judges, generals and admirals, ambassadors and scientists.

Each speaker talks on a subject of interest to business leaders. The subjects may include such areas of interest as: Government, business, economics, finance, military affairs, labor problems, technology, science, politics, taxation, international trade, social problems, education and foreign relations.

While the Club does not take sides on disputed issues, our members as individuals do represent a diversity of opinion. It goes without saying that our speakers have complete freedom to express their views. The Club does not accept responsibility for these views, but it does accept the responsibility for providing an opportunity for them to be enunciated from its platform.

NATIONAL CONFERENCE ON COMPUTER SYSTEMS PRODUCTIVITY

Washington, D.C.

June 27 - 29, 1977

Executive Registry

77-4681

Capitol Area Chapter
Society for Management Information Systems

April 8, 1977

Dear Government Executive:

A unique and important national meeting will take place in Washington, D. C., in June - the first conference dedicated to improving all aspects of computer system productivity. Of interest to computer professionals and managers alike, the conference will feature subject matter specialists as well as management spokesmen.

As a top executive, we are certain that you share our desire to bring this meeting to the attention of officials in your agency who could benefit from this conference, as well as contribute to the exchange of ideas during the discussion periods.

Because of the comprehensive subject matter coverage, as well as the high caliber of conference speakers, we are taking the liberty of asking you to pass along the enclosed conference announcements to colleagues who might have an interest in participating.

Very truly yours,

THE INSTITUTE FOR PROFESSIONAL EDUCATION

Director of Central Intelligence
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Admiral Stansfield:

The Washington Journalism Center is sponsoring a Conference for Journalists on Foreign Policy and Defense Issues from May 16 through 19, 1977.

We would like you to participate in the Conference, speaking informally for about 15 minutes and then answering questions for an hour or so.

Fifteen to twenty editors, editorial writers, commentators and reporters from throughout the country will participate in the Conference, which is one of a series the Center has been sponsoring since 1971 to help develop a broader understanding among journalists of key issues in the news.

Attendance at the Conference is limited so that the sessions can be both informal and informative.

We would like you to talk about U.S. -Soviet relations and lead a discussion at a session at 2:30 p.m. Tuesday, May 17.

If this time is inconvenient, I am sure that we can arrange a time to suit your schedule.

The session will be held at the Watergate Hotel, 2650 Virginia Ave., N.W.

Enclosed is additional information about the Conference on Foreign Policy and Defense Issues. We are hoping for an early and affirmative reply and would appreciate your sending a biographical sheet along with your acceptance.

Sincerely,

Julius Duscha
